DESCRIPTION

The Manor House
From the moment you step into the grand entrance hall, the home's classic proportions and refined character make a lasting impression. Twin staircases rise gracefully to the upper floors, while light floods through tall windows into the elegant salon — an inviting space that opens directly onto a wide terrace with sweeping views across the valley, perfect for sunset aperitifs or alfresco dining.
The spacious, fully equipped Neptune kitchen with walk-in pantry combines traditional charm with modern practicality, while a generous ground-floor suite provides ideal accommodation for guests or single-level living.

Upper Floors & Potential
Upstairs, you'll find four large bedrooms, a flexible office or family room, three stylish shower rooms, and a walk-in dressing room. The vast attic - formerly staff quarters -(approximately 160 m²) offers exciting scope for conversion, whether for extra bedrooms, a creative studio, or an independent apartment (subject to necessary permissions).

The basement level includes ample storage, an airconditioned wine cellar, a sauna, a shower, and a garage.

The Grounds
Encircled by mature trees, the estate's grounds are a haven of tranquility and natural beauty. The land features orchards of fig, plum, peach, apple, and walnut trees and two serene ponds — one spring-fed. A traditional pigeonnier, private well, and an elegant 5 x 15m infinity pool overlooking the valley enhances the estate's rural charm, while a full-size ...
