DESCRIPTION

The property benefits from an excellent energy rating, featuring double glazing throughout, reversible air conditioning, and three wood pellet burners that provide an efficient and comfortable heating system.
It retains a wealth of period features, including a sweeping stone staircase, original tiled flooring, and elegant marble fireplaces, beautifully combining character with modern comfort.
Outside, the property sits on a generous total plot of 1,005 m², with charming private gardens. This includes a separate parcel constructible of 390 m² offering lovely views over the surrounding countryside—perfect for enjoying the peaceful setting.

Situated at the gateway to the Minervois, on the edge of the territory dominated by the Alaric mountains, the village of Moux offers an authentic and peaceful setting surrounded by vineyards and rolling countryside. Ideally positioned between Narbonne and Carcassonne, the village provides everyday amenities including a local grocery shop, restaurant, school, and essential services, all within a friendly community atmosphere. The region is renowned for its wine production and scenic landscapes, perfect for walking and cycling, while the Canal du Midi, major transport links, and the Mediterranean coast are all within easy reach. Moux is an ideal location for both a permanent residence or a tranquil holiday home.
