A very attractive property which consists of a CHARTREUSE dating back to the 1750's and two stone barns overlooking a garden courtyard, enclosed by a wall and gated entrance. To the front of the property is a tree lined Avenue which could be reinstated, taking you to the beautiful stone balcony at the back of the property.

DESCRIPTION

This captivating French CHARTREUSE property, dating back to the 1750s, exudes timeless charm and elegance. Set within an enclosed garden courtyard, the estate comprises a splendid Chartreuse and two stone barns. A picturesque tree-lined avenue leads to a beautiful stone balcony at the rear of the property, offering serene views.

The interior boasts original wooden flooring, full-length storage cupboards, and captivating chimney features. The kitchen seamlessly blends modern amenities, like a breakfast bar and double basin sink, with traditional elements like a potager and original cupboards. The dining room, with its wooden flooring and chimney, opens to a delightful stone terrace.

The ground floor includes three bedrooms, each uniquely designed with French windows, fireplaces, and distinctive features. Additionally, a charming sitting room with a wood-burning fireplace provides a cosy retreat. The upper floor reveals more enchanting spaces, including bedrooms, a sitting area, dressing room, and a well-appointed shower room.

The property further offers versatile attic space with exquisite original beam work and a spacious cellar below. Two barns on the estate present excellent potential for various purposes, and the heated swimming pool, completed in June 2023, provides relaxation and leisure options.

This alluring property boasts several desirable amenities, including oil-fired central heating, double glazing, new roofs, and updated electrical systems. With its three wells, ...
