Discover this spacious and modern villa, located on the edge of Néffies, a popular winegrower's village in the south of France. The villa benefits from open-plan living and offers five bright bedrooms, including an en-suite bedroom with its own balcony overlooking the pool area on the first floor. The gardens surround the villa, and the

DESCRIPTIF

The south-facing villa, constructed in 1989, offers 167 m² of living space and is situated on an enclosed plot of 1,223 m², with an additional parcel of 700 m² at the front of the property, providing a private driveway to the villa.

To the front, the elevated terrace of 173 m² showcases a stunning 9x4 m heated saltwater pool, with plenty of space for relaxing. A covered area provides both sun and shade, and there is a fully equipped summer kitchen along with a spacious dining area overlooking the pool. To the left of the property is a seating area, while to the right you'll find a wood store and a 38 m² double garage. At the rear, the property offers a boules court and views over the countryside.

Inside, the property features a spacious 70 m² open-plan living, dining and kitchen area, complete with a fireplace, a bright dining space, and a fully equipped kitchen. This leads to a utility room and a second kitchen, which provides access back to the garden.

The ground floor comprises four north-facing bedrooms, designed to stay cooler in summer and offering countryside views. There is also a spacious shower room with twin basins, built-in storage, and a separate WC. The generously sized en-suite bedroom is located on the first floor and benefits from its own private balcony overlooking the pool and surrounding countryside. It also includes a tiled shower room with WC and basin.

The villa boasts an attractive energy rating and offers many features throughout, includin
