Hidden away in a tranquil, woodland setting, this delightful maison-de-maître has a vast 3-bedroom private apartment for the owners, 2 gîtes, 3 Mongolian yurts (each with own shower room & WC), a wonderful outdoor relaxation area with a Nordic hot tub and a huge function room of 100m² for hosting weddings, courses,

DESCRIPTIF

Dating back to the 19th century, this superb maison-de-maître of about 530m² has been beautifully converted into a spacious 3-bedroom apartment for the owners, two large gîtes for holidaymakers and a huge function room (100m²) for weddings and events.

Many of the property's original features have been retained and sympathetically restored, such as the carved stone fireplace in Gîte 1, along with arched windows and exposed stone walls throughout. These delightful architectural features complement the property's modern equipment and décor - and offer guests luxury and authenticity.

The maison-de-maître is approached along a private drive lined with mature trees. The drive leads up to a gravel courtyard in front of the property, where there is plenty of room to park. Gîte 1 is on the left of the building, the owners' private apartment is on the right and Gîte 2 is between them. Three private shower rooms have been provided for yurt guests, accessible via a door between Gîte 1 and Gîte 2. Beyond the shower rooms is a staircase up to the events space on the first floor.

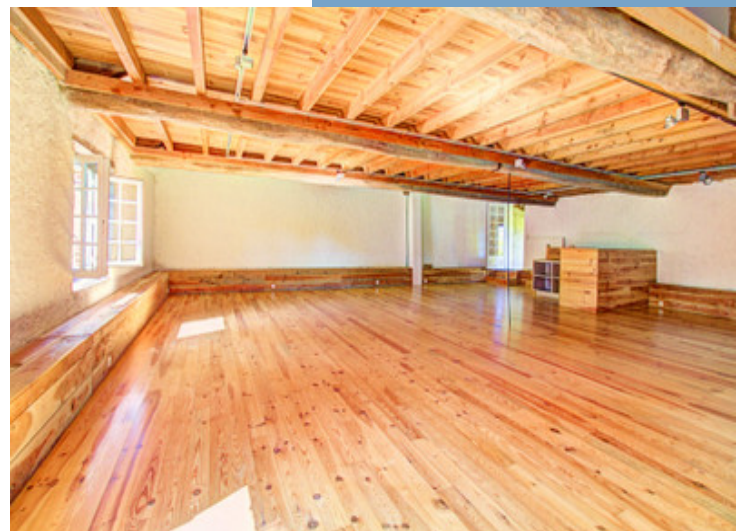

The owners' private apartment has a large open-plan main room on the ground floor with a sitting area with a fireplace, a dining area, an office area and a kitchen area. (It is possible to access Gîte 2 from this room.)

A solid wooden staircase leads up to the apartment's first floor and to a gallery, which overlooks the main room. The first floor comprises a bedroom with an adjoining dressing
