Ref : A32382GT32

Built in 1872 for a member of the family who owned the chateau next-door, this maison de maitre is a gem of la Belle Epoque. The architectural integrity has been retained including stained glass, oak windows, layout, the staircase and orignal doors. There are 6 bedrooms, 4 are en suite, a custom-built kitchen, a separate dining

DESCRIPTION

This exceptional property was beautifully designed and built in the early days of la Belle Epoque which it still fully reflects. It is rare to find this style of property in the region. The rooms are distributed over 3 floors with a full basement. They are all well-proportioned. The wealth of original features includes the stained glass doors in the entry hall that closes off the turned oak staircase that curves its way to the top of the house.

The lovely spacious salon on the left has a marble fireplace, original ceiling roses with elegant chandeliers, and a large window to the south and the mountain view and one to the north with a view to the pond, vegetable garden and two magnificent Sequoia trees.

The dining room to the right, with similar original features, has a view to the mountains, garden, the terrace and the swimming pool.

Through one of the stained glass doors you find a WC tucked in neatly under the stairwell and the custom-designed kitchen. This is a lovely room with double exposition, a central island and lots of cupboard and workspace, all conceived by a culinary professional.

Through the other stained glass door is the staircase and up on the first floor are four ensuite bedrooms and a lovely little space with a window to the south and a magnificent mountain view.

Up on the top floor is a study with an even better view, a small play area, and two large bedrooms under the eaves.

The full basement has 5 areas/rooms and access to the back garden.
