DESCRIPTION

A Home of Timeless Beauty

Every inch of this home reflects its rich history and unparalleled character, from the intricate details in the stonework to the unique layout that offers both privacy and functionality. Whether you are looking for a luxurious residence, a business opportunity, or both, this property is a rare opportunity to own a piece of history.

Step into history and elegance with this stunning 14th-century home, an extraordinary blend of beauty, spaciousness, and charm. Properties of this calibre and character are truly rare, offering not only a luxurious residence but also a unique opportunity for income or business ventures.

Ground Floor

As you enter at street level, you are immediately greeted by a breath-taking white stone spiral staircase, a masterpiece of 14th-century craftsmanship. This exquisite feature sets the tone for every corner of the property.

To your right, a door opens to a room currently used as an antiques shop spanning 60 square metres, complete with a large storefront and a separate entrance to the street. This versatile space brims with potential, whether as a stunning entertaining room, an artist's studio, or a thriving business opportunity.

Descending a few steps, you'll find a truly unique stone cellar bedroom measuring 6.6m x 6.7m. The grandeur of this room is enhanced by its chandelier, original alcoves, and authentic local white stone flooring, creating an atmosphere of timeless elegance and comfort.
