Historic estate overlooking the Léguer in Lannion (22)

Former 18th-century Corderie Royale

Located just a few minutes' walk from Lannion town centre, this rare property overlooks the calm, wooded banks of the Léguer, the emblematic coastal river of the Côtes-d'Armor region.

DESRIPTIF

The property spans 2,159 m² with five separate buildings, providing a total of more than 650 m² of usable space.

Two main buildings for renovation with superb volumes, vaulted roofs and large windows, suitable for use as lofts, contemporary flats, reception areas, coworking spaces, galleries, workshops or architect's houses, duplexes or mixed-use areas.

Two renovated houses with terraces and panoramic views over the Léguer. These adjoining and interconnecting flats can be lived in immediately, rented out or offered as a gîte or guest house.

The first dwelling comprises an entrance hall, a living room with wood burner, a fitted kitchen opening onto a dining room, a master suite (shower room + dressing room) and upstairs 2 bedrooms with en suite shower rooms; the second dwelling offers a bright living room with fitted kitchen, a bathroom with bath and shower and 2 bedrooms upstairs.

Another renovated, detached C house has a fitted kitchen opening on to an outside terrace and 3 bedrooms, each with its own shower room; various possibilities for seasonal rental or co-living.

The property has a courtyard and an interior garden, an enclosed garage and private parking for several vehicles.

Whether you are an investor, a heritage craftsman, a tourist project developer or a lover of old architecture, this estate is waiting for you to start a new chapter.
