DESCRIPTION

A character-filled southern French residence, beautifully restored twenty years ago by Scottish owners, set in a peaceful wine village in the Minervois, 30 minutes from Narbonne. Behind its discreet façade lies a generous, welcoming property where authenticity meets comfort and Mediterranean outdoor living. Ideal as a family haven, boutique B&B or a combined home-plus-rental business, and just 20 km from Narbonne.

Step into the owners' private entrance hall, with a utility room, storage and a WC, leading to a cosy private salon. Here, a pellet stove warms the salon, the kitchen and the multi-purpose reception room beside it, while a charming spiral staircase rises to the owners' bedroom suite with its own bathroom and private terrace overlooking the garden.

A second front door opens into the guest lounge. In summer, guests drift between this welcoming salon and the cool courtyard for shade and calm. In winter, the wood-burning insert brings warmth and atmosphere.

On the upper floors, four spacious guest rooms each offer their own bathroom. Comfort is year-round thanks to reversible air conditioning in every room.

A separate staircase leads further up to the fifth guest room with its own bathroom, and to the 80 m² independent apartment on the second floor. With its own entrance, two bedrooms, bathroom, open kitchen and living room, and a private terrace with barbecue and no overlooking, it is perfect for holiday rental or as an owners' apartment if the main house i...
