DESCRIPTIF

It's easy to see why this idyllic spot on the Seine, with its breathtaking panoramic views, gave rise to one of the greatest love stories ever experienced by a French king. The Château du bas-Coudray, built as a residential retreat away from the castle of the lord of COUDRAY, whose main residence was in the grounds of the Golf du Coudray-Montceaux, I.4 km away.

Welcoming, warm and harmonious, this prestigious château is practical for those who want to live in the countryside while being close to the heart of Paris, just 47 minutes away by RER. Sheltered between the wooded slopes surrounding the Belle Gabrielle staircase and the Seine, it enjoys a cool microclimate during the hot summer months. The slopes and trees provide a peaceful environment just 2.7 km from the A6 motorway.
