DESCRIPTION

Hidden on a peaceful one-way street in the heart of Coursan, this exceptional home combines industrial heritage with modern elegance. Once an old wine remise, it has been completely transformed between 2021 and 2024 into a stunning contemporary residence, blending volume, light, and refined materials — all with the convenience of village life.

As you arrive, a large paved entrance atrium (65 m²) sets the tone — a stylish covered space where several cars can park comfortably. It leads directly to a spectacular 150 m² garage with soaring ceilings, ideal for a workshop, collector's space, or even a creative studio. At the back, a peaceful 70 m² garden (partly covered) offers an intimate outdoor retreat and the potential to add a studio or home office — a perfect complement if the garage serves as a workspace or atelier.

To the right of the entrance, the front door opens onto a dramatic hall (17 m²), where the double-height ceiling and contemporary décor immediately impress. A wide staircase leads upstairs to the living areas. From the landing (10 m²), you step into a breathtaking 75 m² open-plan living room and kitchen with cathedral ceilings — a luminous space featuring oak flooring, exposed beams, stone walls, and expansive glass doors that open to the terrace.

The large bay windows open generously, creating a wide and seamless transition to the southeast-facing 100 m² terrace. Here, you'll find a heated saltwater overflow pool (3.5 x 2.5 m), a jacuzzi,...
