Ideally located between Domme and the medieval jewel

DESCRIPTION

Exceptional Historic Château with Private River Access. Dordogne Valley

Discreetly positioned in the charming village of Vitrac, this extraordinary château commands breathtaking panoramic views across the Dordogne Valley.

Ideally located just 8 km from Sarlat-la-Canéda and 5 km from Domme, it offers privileged access to one of Southwest France's most celebrated regions.

Dating from the 16th and 18th centuries, this rare and distinguished château has been meticulously restored using premium materials and modern technologies, achieving a seamless harmony between historic character and contemporary comfort. Original architectural features have been carefully preserved, while refined upgrades ensure effortless modern living throughout.

Set within just over 8 hectares of private lawns, meadows, and woodland, the property offers approximately 644 m² of elegant living space, arranged as follows:

Ground Floor

Vaulted basement and wine cellar

Grand reception salon with fireplace leading to a magnificent orangerie opening onto the main terrace

Intimate salon with glass floor and concealed bar

Library

Formal dining room

Tea salon

Professional-grade kitchen with fireplace

Pantry and laundry room

First Floor

Six generously proportioned bedrooms, each with its own private bathroom

Second Floor
