THROW FROM THE BEACH...

Ref : A42672JFD35

Superb characterful stone house located in the highly sought-after Rocabey neighbourhood of Saint-Malo, just a 5-minute walk from the beach and close to shops, schools and the market. With a living area of approximately 201 m², it is complemented by a separate cottage, ideal for a rental project or for entertaining family and friends.

DESCRIPTION

This characterful house charms visitors from the moment they step inside with its generous proportions, natural light and perfectly preserved authenticity. The high ceilings, original materials and fireplace give the reception rooms a warm and elegant atmosphere. The layout is ideal for family life and entertaining, with well-defined spaces and a fluid flow between indoors and outdoors. The separate kitchen opens naturally onto the covered terrace and enclosed garden, offering a pleasant living environment in all seasons.

The upper floors accommodate six spacious bedrooms, allowing for multiple uses: family bedrooms, office, guest area or rental project. The bathrooms are well distributed, ensuring comfort and practicality on a daily basis. The basement, which has its own separate entrance, is a real bonus. Currently fitted out as offices with a reception area, it is perfectly suited to a professional practice or any other project requiring a separate space.

The property is complemented by a separate guest house, ideal for hosting family and friends, developing a seasonal rental business or creating a separate workspace. A garage, terrace and garden of approximately 400 m² complete the property, offering a rare and sought-after outdoor space in this area. The house has fibre optic broadband and a gas boiler, ensuring comfort and efficiency.

Located in the sought-after neighbourhood of Rocabey, this house enjoys a privileged location, comb...
