DESCRIPTION

In the heart of the Côte d'Or, the premier wine region of Burgundy, lies the village of Pommard, world-famous for its wines. In this characteristic wine village, you will find this move-in ready, completely renovated home.

Behind the old stone walls, you step into a thoroughly renovated home where every detail and quality counts. Electricity, double glazed windows, insulated floors and ceilings, new bathrooms, recent modern gas heating, attention has been paid to every detail.

The property consists of several merged buildings. The adjoining buildings are connected by an underlying vaulted cellar. Unique to this property is the accompanying spacious parking space, rare in this popular village.

This property offers living space divided into three units: a spacious house: living area with the stone walls and a beautiful BRUNNER fireplace, a kitchen from Arthur BONNET, separate toilet, a bedroom with adjoining bathroom. Via a beautiful oak-wood stairs you will come to the floor with another large bedroom and a very spacious bathroom. Next door a large apartment with its own entrance, with a living / kitchen area and a bedroom / bathroom on the floor above. Third is a building that still needs to be developed, but holds a great deal of potential. A new insulated roof has already been installed by local craftsmen; the rest is left for you to decide. Under this part you will also find an old wine-cellar.

Severall outdoor spaces and terrasses offer you a place to enjoy a g...
