A Rare Estate Combining Heritage, Privacy and Investment Potential Set within 51 hectares of contiguous certified organic land, this extraordinary country estate offers a unique opportunity to acquire a private sanctuary in one of Southern France's most unspoilt natural environments.

DESCRIPTION

Located just 20 minutes from Carcassonne and its international airport, and only one hour from Toulouse, the property enjoys an exceptional setting within a protected Natura 2000 site, surrounded by rolling countryside and commanding breathtaking panoramic views across the Malepère hills.

A place of remarkable tranquillity, where a life style is defined by space, nature and complete privacy.

At the heart of the estate stands a 19th-century stone residence offering approximately 575 m² of living accommodation. Currently configured as five independent apartments, this property could provide exceptional flexibility and multiple income-generating possibilities, including:

- * Private family estate
- * Luxury guesthouse or boutique hospitality business
- * High-end holiday rental operation
- * Multi-generational residence
- * Turnkey investment property with established rental potential

Each apartment benefits from independent central heating, private outdoor terraces, and character features including original fireplaces and wood-burning stoves, blending authentic charm with modern comfort.

Exceptional Outdoor Living

Designed to embrace the beauty of its surroundings, the estate offers an outstanding leisure environment centred around a heated and secure swimming pool.

Positioned away from the residential buildings to ensure complete peace and privacy, the pool area features a fully equipped pool house with barbecue facilities and guest amenities, creating the perfect setting for ente...
