An Exceptional Historic Estate Awaiting Revival.

Nestled in the heart of a magnificent park with century-old trees, this remarkable estate combines a late 18th-century manor house with a stunning 19th-century château built shortly after the Second Empire by

DESCRIPTION

A Distinguished French Estate of Rare Heritage and Exceptional Potential

Set within almost 9 hectares (22 acres) of magnificent private parkland, much of it enclosed by historic stone walls, this outstanding family estate presents a rare opportunity to acquire a significant piece of French architectural heritage. The property comprises an elegant 19th-century château, an authentic 18th-century manor house, extensive former wine and Cognac buildings, and a collection of historic outbuildings.

Constructed around 1875, the château is a remarkable example of French historic architecture. Its striking façade, combining limestone, brick and slate, reflects a sophisticated blend of Renaissance inspiration and classical refinement. Mullioned windows, richly carved stonework and numerous ornamental chimneys contribute to its distinguished character.

Extending to more than 650 m² (7,000 sq ft) across three principal floors, the château remains remarkably untouched, preserving the atmosphere and grandeur of a bygone age. A spectacular entrance hall leads to a suite of elegant reception rooms, grand salons, a billiard room and formal dining room, all distinguished by generous proportions and impressive ceiling heights. Original parquet floors, finely crafted wood panelling, period fireplaces and decorative features have survived in exceptional condition. The château offers 12 bedrooms, 5 bathrooms, extensive service areas and convertible attic space, providing an extraordinary c...
