Set in the heart of the Minervois wine region, this beautifully renovated former wine estate offers over 435 m² of living space with 10 bedrooms and accommodation for up to 22 guests.

Surrounded by vineyards and enjoying panoramic countryside views, it

DESCRIPTION

Behind its traditional stone walls, this beautifully renovated former wine property offers over 435 m² of living space, combining character, comfort and exceptional flexibility. With 10 bedrooms, most with their own private shower room, the house can comfortably accommodate up to 22 guests, making it equally suited as a spacious family home, an established holiday rental or a retreat venue.

Designed for indoor-outdoor living, the property really comes into its own during the warmer months. The heated swimming pool is surrounded by generous terraces with plenty of space to relax, while the summer kitchen and large pergola create a wonderful setting for entertaining. The impressive outdoor dining area comfortably seats 22 guests, making it easy to gather family and friends around one table for long lunches and memorable evenings.

The property also includes a garage and a substantial barn, offering excellent potential for conversion into a gym, yoga studio, offices, creative workspace or additional guest accommodation, subject to any necessary permissions.

The mature gardens are supplied by a private well with an automatic irrigation system, keeping maintenance simple throughout the year. For buyers wishing to continue the successful holiday rental business, the current owners already work with trusted local teams for the garden, swimming pool and cleaning, allowing a smooth handover of the activity.

The house is located in Saint-Jean-de-Minervois, a small and highly regarded...
