A rare opportunity to acquire an exceptional property in the heart of the Bay of Mont-Saint-Michel. This substantial residence, purpose-built to provide flexible holiday accommodation, comprises nine independent gîtes in addition to a five-bedroom owner's section, which includes an impressive covered leisure area with swimming

DESCRIPTION

Purpose-built in 2018, this impressive property has been thoughtfully designed around the needs of both guests and owners, creating a highly flexible accommodation complex within easy reach of Mont-Saint-Michel.

The nine furnished gîtes provide a flexible range of accommodation for couples, families and larger groups, with units currently configured for between two and five guests. Each offers independent living accommodation with its own kitchen and facilities, allowing each gîte to function independently while forming part of one coherent complex.

Private owner's accommodation

The substantial five-bedroom private owner's accommodation of approximately 156 m² is incorporated within the property, providing comfortable and separate private living space. This allows an owner to live comfortably on site whilst maintaining separation between private and guest areas.

Covered pool and leisure complex

At the heart of the property is an impressive covered leisure area centred around an approximately 8m x 4m swimming pool. Generous surrounding relaxation and communal spaces create an important all-weather facility and add considerably to the property's year-round appeal.

Designed for flexibility

One of the property's most interesting features is the adaptability incorporated into its design. The building was conceived so that elements of its existing configuration can potentially evolve, with internal layouts and certain door and window openings capable of being adapted to suit...
