Dating from 1690, this distinguished hôtel particulier, originally built as a Barons' townhouse, occupies a prominent position overlooking one of Mayenne's historic town squares, within comfortable walking distance of shops, schools and everyday amenities.

DESCRIPTION

OVERVIEW

Historic 17th-century hôtel particulier dating from 1690

Approximately 383m² of accommodation

Three principal residential floors

Six bedrooms

Original cellars, attics and rooftop cupola access

Private courtyard and landscaped walled garden

Substantial 19th-century dependency

Numerous original architectural features retained

Among the most notable spaces are the magnificent Grand Salon, the original sweeping staircase and the principal bedroom suite, all reflecting the scale and architectural character of this remarkable period property.

Entrance & Courtyard

Accessed through traditional carriageway gates, the property opens into a private inner courtyard with covered off-street parking and planted borders

The enclosed courtyard provides a peaceful and private setting, with access continuing through to the walled rear garden.

Ground Floor – Formal Reception Rooms

The entrance foyer immediately reflects the proportions and character of the house, with a granite floor, decorative ceilings and an impressive original staircase sweeping upwards through the heart of the property.

Two principal 17th-century reception rooms are arranged on this level.

Grand Salon – 44.49m²

One of the outstanding rooms of the property, the Grand Salon is flooded with natural light from six tall French windows overlooking the courtyard and gardens.

Period features include floor-to-ceiling panelling, neoclassical columns, Versailles parquet flooring, ornate ceiling mouldings, a marb...
