DESCRIPTION

Beautifully renovated and full of character, this impressive stone home occupies a commanding elevated position with exceptional far-reaching views across fabulous rolling countryside.

Two expansive reception rooms with feature fireplaces and exposed beams create an elegant blend of warmth, space and traditional charm. The huge rear terrace is a defining feature, offering an exceptional setting for long lunches, lazy afternoons and memorable evenings with family and friends, all against a spectacular countryside backdrop. A private sunny front courtyard provides a second, more intimate outdoor space.

With 8 bedrooms, the option of single-level living and a self-contained lower-ground-floor apartment, the property offers exceptional flexibility for family, guests or rental use.

With the centre of Thiviers, its weekly market, cafés, bars and restaurants within a 15-minute walk, this is a rare opportunity to embrace an enviable French country lifestyle in a home of distinction, surrounded by outstanding views.

The property offers 421m² of living space, with a mixture of double and single glazing. Heating is provided by oil-fired central heating, underfloor heating, wood-burning stoves and electric heating. The property benefits from fibre-optic internet, with hardwired connectivity throughout the house. The energy rating is D, and the property has a fully conforming septic tank. The vast majority of the furniture is also available for purchase with the property.
