DESCRIPTION

This handsome 19th-century château enjoys an elevated position above the Loire, with the river stretching out below. Built in 1878 in carved tuffeau stone over a granite base, the property combines the character and proportions of a traditional Loire château with an unusually large amount of additional space. Restored by the current owners,, it offers the rare possibility of creating a truly personal country estate, while also providing extensive space for professional, creative or commercial activities.

The château offers approximately 1,000m² of accommodation over three principal floors, with a lift and around 120m² of cellars.
The impressive ground floor has 4.30m ceilings and includes a large entrance hall [20m2], reception room, library/music room [71m2], dining room [33m2], shower room and WC, together with a spacious fitted kitchen [20.5m2] overlooking the park and a pantry. The reception rooms retain their parquet floors and marble fireplaces, creating elegant spaces for entertaining or simply enjoying family life.
The first floor has nine bedrooms [ranging between 10.34 and 21.5m2], six with private shower rooms, two further WCs and a separate private apartment comprising a sitting room, shower room and large bedroom with marble fireplace and balcony overlooking the Loire.
Seven further bedrooms occupy the second floor [14.5m2 to 20m2], together with a WC, four bathrooms and a large children's games room [21m2].
With this amount of accommodation, a new owner co...
